Features of Centralised Billing

- The service provider will have two or more credit card machines
- The booking is done by paying an advance amount for which a receipt is given
- The remaining stall rent will have a fixed component of Rs.10000/- and a percentage taken from the sale of merchandise
- The payments both in cash as well as online are done through centralized billing service only
- The expo will have a clearly demarcated entry and exit points and these are manned by the security
- The consumers make purchases in the stalls and the AU makes the entry of the billing in the tablet provided and prints the slip in triplicate and a copy of the slip is given to the consumer
- The entry of the billing will also capture the type of material, consumer details etc
- The billing at the stall is being viewed by the service provider and a runner is instantly sent for pick up and the material is sent to the final delivery at the exit along with the second copy of the slip pinned to the bag
- The consumer may choose to further continue with purchases and make the final billing at the time of exit
- The security at the exit gate will verify the invoice and merchandise and allow the consumer to exit
- The service provider will reconcile and distribute the collected amount to the respective stall after deducting the due share for SMOI and the service provider on the same day itself. The online payments will be settled within three days.
- In case of credit/debit card and other online payment methods, the service provider will bear the commissions to the banks/financial institutions from the service provider share
- The service provider will provide manpower for billing, cash handling, runners to collect merchandise and make delivery at the exit counter
- The booking for the stalls closes on 11th July, 2016 and the advance amount is to be paid for the confirmation before the due date
